And in this documentary film and upon Ramón's personal vision, contributing great testimonial value to it, an attempt has been made to give voice to all the musicians who, without having achieved commercial success, were, are and will be, a fundamental part of the musical gear of our country.

The movie has the collaboration of several artists located in various parts of the world (Miami, Mexico or Thailand) and also includes the contribution of relevant personalities in the music industry such as FERNANDO VILLAR, known for his work for RTVE and Mediaset, and JUAN MURO, legendary saxophonist of famous Spanish groups such as Dúo Dinámico or Hombres G.
